for their solvency. No person will be allowed to bid in the absence of such certificate.

4. No person will be allowed to bid unless he has deposited with the officer holding the sale a sum of Rs. 10 which must be deposited in the form of currency notes. The deposits of unsuccessful bidders will be returned, i.e., immediately after the sale.

5. The exclusive right of collecting and removing the produce above described will be disposed off to the highest bidder subject to the confirmation of the District Forest Officer or the Conservator of Forests as the case may be, who at his discretion may accept or reject the highest or any other bid without assigning any reason.

6. The successful bidder, shall, at the close of the sale, credit into the District Treasury or Taluk Treasury, the entire sale amount, including the deposit already made, together with cesses at three annas per rupee. In default, the deposit will be forfeited and the right resold. Such resale will be at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, and will be liable to make good any loss that may result to Government by it, but will not participate in any profit accruing therefrom.
